Greece

Nowhere else in the world are the grand sweep of history and the magnificence of nature so intertwined as in Greece. Journey to the birthplace of Western civilization; where the sparkling azure waters of the Aegean Sea create a beautiful backdrop to it all. Athens is a spellbinding destination, with the majestic Acropolis looking down upon the city. A thriving metropolis has risen around these treasured ruins, where the days of exploration through the remains of Greece's golden age lead to nights filled with fine cuisine, glittering nightclubs and soulful music.

Life Begins on the Water...

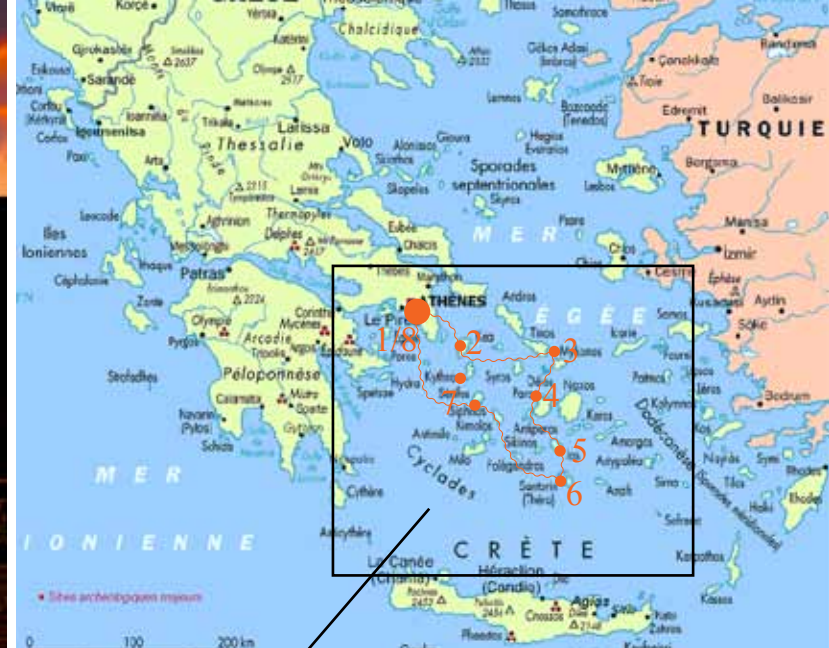

The Cyclades Islands

The most famous of the Greek Islands, the Cyclades are composed of 39 islands. The most well-known ones are Amorgos, Andros, Antiparos, Delos, Ios, Kea, Folegandros, Milos, Mykonos, Naxos, Paros, Santorini, Serifos, Sifnos, Syros and Tinos.

Must see

The Cyclades offer turquoise waters and white sandy beaches that make them one of the finest sailing destinations worldwide.

Sample Itinerary

Day 1

Athens to Kea. Experience the Parthenon before boarding and starting the 4 hour journey to Kea. Spend the evening visiting the traditional taverns and shops.

Day 5

Ios to Santorini. Whether the wines, cuisine, impressive beaches or submerged volcanoes this stop has much to explore.

Day 2

Kea to Tinos and Mykonos. Be sure to visit the Church of Panagia before heading to Mykonos to take in the beautiful beaches and attractive nightlife.

Day 6

Santorini to Sifnos. Off to Kamares, the principal port. All roads lead to must see places along the coast.

Day 3

Mykonos to Delos to Paros. Stop into the sacred island of Delos before our short trip to Paros, considered the most beautiful island of the Cyclades.

Day 7

Sifnos to Serifos to Kythnos. Serifos is known for its food and relaxed atmosphere. In the afternoon head over to Kythnos, an unspoiled island.

Day 4

Paros to Ios. Ios is the heart of the Cyclades and said to be the island of youth. Famous for its vivid nightlife and crystal clear water.

Day 8

This morning we will have to make our way back to Athens where we will bid adieu until the next time we may host you on your luxury yacht vacation in Greece!
